

Absolute slope change by task

Each point is one participant-task response; lower values indicate better slope preservation.

